BEGONIA STRAWBERRY

ALL ABOUT BEGONIAS

Looking for a houseplant that's a little different? Well Begonia's are known for their vibrant flowers and striking leaves. These houseplants look like they are straight out of the jungle, and with proper care they will thrive in your home!

Begonia's are expressive – if they are receiving too little water their leaves will very obviously droop or shrivel. Likewise, if it's getting too much light you will notice scorch on the leaves! So if you're looking for a plant that knows what it wants, this is the one for you!
